EMPIRE TRADE.

HOW IT HAS DWINDLED.

LONDON, December 20.

Sir W. Joynton Hicks was the guest of the Colonial Institute at luncheon on taking over the Overseas Trade Department. He emphasised that this sole remedy for the present unemployment in Britain was the development of inter Empire trade. He pointed out that British trade was down £300,000,000 worth. The deficiency would have absorbed over ninety per cent of the unemployed. There was no possibility of the continental market reviving for many years, therefore the prime essential was to develop the Dominions trade.

SOME ILLUMINATING FIGURES.

He quoted figures showing that all the Dominions imported less from Britain and more from the United States. New Zealand's imports during the past thirty years from Britain had declined from 67 to 52 per cent. While imports from the United States had risen from 5 to 16 per cent. British imports to Australia had declined from 68 to 50 per cent and American imports rose from 6 to 18 per cent. In regard to South Africa the figures were 84 to 53 per cent and 3 to 14 per cent, Canada 48 to 17 per cent and 40 to 67 per cent, and India 75 to 63 per cent and 2 to 8 per cent.

THE FORTHCOMING CONFERENCE.

There was naturally a strong demand in Dominions having nascent industries for protection against the whole world including Britain. The latter had got to face the facts and could only ask in the forthcoming economic conference for suggestions for improvement of inter-Imperial trade in full realisation that there would be no suggestion of any kind by the Imperial Government that the Dominions should in anywise give up the industries they had started. He emphasised the need for emigration both from the point of view of Britain and the Dominions.

WASHINGTON TREATY RATIFICATION.

FRENCH NEWSPAPER'S COMPLAINT.

PARIS, December 20.

Discussing the Government's decision to recommend Parliament to ratify the Washington agreement the Echo de Paris complains that the agreement does not favour France because on December 10, 1921, the French delegates were suddenly confronted with an Anglo-Japanese-American accord which was negotiated very secretly. The paper hopes that Britain and America will truly appreciate the concession to which France is asked to agree and says the debate on the agreements with probably coincide with an important phase of the reparations problem. Thus France will have the opportunity of judging of the benevolence displayed towards her.

FOREIGNERS IN TURKEY.

ALLIED PROPOSAL REJECTED.

LAUSANNE, December 21.

A meeting of the capitulations sub-commission in the morning ended the deadlock and the question must be referred to the full commission. The Turks were uncompromising, insisting on placing foreigners in Turkey under the jurisdiction of native tribunals and laws of Turkey rejecting the allied proposal to appoint European assistant judges designated by a permanent Court of Justice.

AMERICAN LOAN TO GERMANY.

WHY IT CAN'T BE DONE.

New York, December 20.

Mr. T. W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan and Co. referring to newspaper reports giving the impression that the German envoy's request for a loan had been refused said they told Herr Wiedfeldt that a loan was impossible because at present the American public would not consider buying bonds, also Morgan and Co. could not recommend subscriptions to such a loan to investors at present.

M.C.C.'S NEW ZEALAND TOWN.

WANGARUA, December 20.

The M.C.C. beat the Minor Associations by ten wickets. The Associations made 120 and 200. The M.C.C. Marylebone made 286 and 34 for no wickets. Oathorpe scored 117.

LONDON NEWSPAPERS CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY.

LONDON, December 20.

The newspapers are not publishing on Christmas and Boxing days.

LAUSANNE CONFERENCE.

RUPTURE NOT LIKELY.

TURNES CONCILIATORY AND RUSSIANS SILENT.

LAUSANNE, December 20.

Fears that the conference would end in a rupture have been dissipated. After a meeting of the number one commission lasting only an hour and a half Earl Curzon returned to his hotel. He looked very pleased and when questioned smiled at the idea of a rupture. He said that on the contrary the Turks displayed a most conciliatory attitude. The Russians were silent at the sitting.

THE AMERICAN VIEW.

LAUSANNE, December 20.

In view of inaccurate reports and doubts regarding the American attitude in respect of control of the Straits, the American has issued a declaration statement emphasising its opinion that freedom of the Straits would be better served by reliance on treaty rights than an international commission.

WORLD TENNIS.

NEW DAVIS CUP SCHEME.

LONDON, December 20.

A conference of delegates from the various tennis-playing countries, including Mr. Slazum on behalf of Japan has approved the proposed zoning-system under which the Davis Cup competition will be divided into two sections—American and European. Each entering nation will declare the section in which it desires to compete and the winners in each section will meet to decide which shall challenge the holders. The new rule was adopted for a more equitable division of the receipts and expenses of competing nations.

ATTACKS ON ALLIED MISSIONS.

A FULLER APOLOGY DEMANDED.

PARIS, December 20.

The Passau, Ingolstadt and Stettin incidents have not yet closed. The Ambassadors' conference replying to the German note of December 10 demand that Bavaria and the local authorities be included in the German apology which shall be officially published. They insist upon more drastic punishment for all those responsible.

INDO-BURMAH OIL FIELDS.

REORGANISATION OF CAPITAL.

LONDON, December 20.

The directors of the Indo-Burmah oilfields which had £7,507,000 in cash remaining on March 31 propose a reorganisation of capital with the object of writing off half of the issued amount and raising £1,650,000 by offering preference shares to shareholders proportionately to their holdings. The whole issue has been provisionally underwritten.

IRISH REBEL FUNDS.

APPLICATION TO U.S. SUPREME COURT.

New York, December 20.

The Supreme Court has adjourned to December 27 the hearing of the Free State Government's application for an injunction to prevent the rebel leaders De Valera and O'Mara from withdrawing the funds of $2,500,000 collected in the United States. The Judge demanded assurances from the Free State representative that O'Mara, who is now in prison in Ireland would not be executed until the commission appointed by the Court arrived in Ireland to take his testimony.

B. A. T. PROFITS.

DIVIDEND OF 24 PER CENT.

LONDON, December 21.

The British-American Tobacco Company's net profits for the year were £4,400,000 compared with £4,323,000 in 1922. A dividend of 25 per cent has been declared compared with 24 per cent last year. £3,276,000 has been carried forward.

AMERICAN LOAN FOR CHINA.

EX-PREMIER CHOW TSU-CHI IN NEW YORK.

New York, December 20.

Ex-Premier Chow Tsu Chi and 23 other Chinese have arrived. Chow declared that he intended to negotiate a loan but admitted that he would talk to American bankers on the subject.

FRANCIS GEORGE'S HEALTH.

TRAFFIC IN ARMS.

"GUN-RUNNERS' PARADISE."

RUTHLESS PUNISHMENT URGED.

Under the caption "The gunrunners' paradise" Shanghai Shipping and Engineering publishes the following comments on the illegal traffic in arms that is going on in China:—

Recent events in Hongkong and China (and even in San Francisco) have proved beyond any doubt that the illegal importation of arms and ammunition into the Republic of China and the Crown Colony is still conducted on a large scale. During the present year, events in both the Colony and the Republic in the form of piracy, robberies, hold-ups, etc., have demonstrated how widespread the evil, and on one well understand the view held by many of the authorities responsible for the maintenance of Law and Order that this question constitutes one of the gravest problems they have to face at the present time.

If any doubt existed as to the extent or seriousness of the evil, this must have been dispelled by the many instances of contraband arms and ammunition which have come to light recently—the seizure of a large consignment for China, on a trans-Pacific vessel at San Francisco just as she was about to leave for China, the "Sun-an" and other pirates; and the seizures which have been made from time to time by the police at both Hongkong and Shanghai.

The case in which two officers of a vessel visiting Hongkong were caught practically re-handling trying to smuggle revolvers and ammunition, ashore shows more clearly than ever that the persons engaged in the pernicious traffic of arms—smuggling—are not only Chinese, not that much doubt has existed on this point for some years.
It is extremely gratifying that the Magistrate at Hongkong meted out to both offenders a rigorous term of imprisonment, a term which ought to prove a deterrent to others engaged in the same traffic. In the case we are referring to, the pistols undoubtedly came from America, and while there is no doubt that a good deal of arms smuggling is done on trans-Pacific vessels, ships from European ports bring to the Far East quite an appreciable proportion of the lethal weapons which are smuggled to these parts.

These gun-runners constitute a grave, a very grave, danger to the whole community in China. These are times of trouble enough, what with
the hordes of disarmed (and oftentimes not disarmed) soldiery imposing by
force of arms their will on the populace;
and the uncertainty of existence in China is added to by the importation of large quantities of arms by those whose only object in so doing is personal gain, with never a thought
to the state of affairs such action brings about.

We can state, and state definitely,
that there have been many instances
of pistols being landed in China and Hongkong from vessels which have touched at Hamburg and other North Continental ports. With the depreciated value of the mark and other European currencies, and the consequent enhanced purchasing value of the

It is unfortunate that here in Shanghai there appear to be few tribunals where the judge is disposed to inflict more than a nominal punishment on those found guilty of the smuggling of arms. There was one case, only a few weeks ago, in which a subject of a European nation was caught with (we believe) six automatic pistols and a considerable quantity of ammunition which he had brought ashore from a ship from Europe, and yet he received a punishment which,
in view of the extreme gravity of the crime, can be considered only as ridiculous.

Stern, ruthless, repressive measures are indicated in the case of all persons, no matter what their station, nor whether they be rich or poor, who have been proved to have smuggled, or attempted to smuggle, arms and ammunition into China. The small fines and occasional light terms of imprisonment which appear to be inflicted locally as a matter of course are not deterrent. Trivial punishment in such instances really becomes not a deterrent but an inducement to further efforts in the same direction, for disproportionate profits obtainable in gun-running to China are more than sufficient to negate any minor punishment which possibly will be inflicted if the attempt is discovered. If the local tribunals would follow the admirable lead set by Mr. J.R. Wood at Hongkong, and sentence proved offenders to a term of imprisonment which would not only teach those convicted that the game can be dangerous from more viewpoints than one, but would be a distinct and unmistakable warning to others engaged in the same nefarious traffic, it is probable that the present traffic in guns would considerably be reduced.

These gun-runners constitute a grave, a very grave, danger to the whole community in China. These
are times of trouble enough, what with
the hordes of disarmed (and oftentimes
not disarmed) soldiery imposing by
force of arms their will on the populace;
and the uncertainty of existence in China is added to by the importation
of large quantities of arms by those whose only object in so doing is
personal gain, with never a thought
to the state of affairs such action
brings about.

We can state, and state definitely,
that there have been many instances
of pistols being landed in China and Hongkong from vessels which have touched at Hamburg and other North Continental ports. With the depreciated
value of the mark and other European currencies, and the consequent
enhanced purchasing value of the dollar, the purchase of guns in Germany and other European countries for sale in the Far East is an extensively lucrative business. With detention (in Shanghai at any rate) carrying such small penalties, it is not to be wondered at that the traffic has assumed large proportions.

The robbers, pirates and other pests in China do not manufacture their own guns, nor are they manufactured in China by others. We have it on good authority that generally speaking, the types of pistol most commonly in use by the criminals in China are the Mauser pattern; a pistol of Spanish Manufacture (a type known as the "Toledo Webley"—a nasty, unreliable atrocity of which many thousands were sold in South America and the West Indies some years ago and which seems to have found a sale in China only during the last six or seven years; and, in a much lesser degree, the Belgian, American and English makes. While it is not suggested that all of these pistols have been imported direct from the countries of their origin, it seems probable that many of them have,
and that what is wanting is that the strings at the European ports be tightened a little, to be of some assistance to the already perturbed authorities in the Far East. In many ports in these parts, it is a comparatively simple matter for arms and ammunition to be landed, and it is usually only by accident (as witness the recent Hongkong case) that discovery is made.

So long as it is possible to import arms into China practically ad libitum, and so long as persons will be found ready and willing to take part in this traffic—whether they be foreigners or Chinese, there can be no hope of any appreciable diminution of the lawlessness which prevails practically all over China. The chief remedy is ruthless punishment, to the uttermost limits of the law, in the case of all proved offenders. This, with an added alertness on the part of the authorities at all the ports concerned, is the only immediate remedy to a state of affairs which is not merely a Chinese scandal, but an international one.

Whooping Cough.

When your child has whooping cough be careful to keep the cough loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as may be required.
This remedy will also liquify the tough mucus and make it easy to expectorate. It has been used successfully in many epidemics and as it contains no narcotic or other injurious substances it is perfectly safe. For sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

No stiff joints or aching back when you were young.

Yet now you are at middle age, or perhaps a little older, your back aches "fit to break". There are sharp twinges of rheumatism in your muscles and joints. And you do not feel as well as thirty years ago, when you could romp with the youngsters and feel that life was really worth living.

Why this great change?

Age is not wholly to account for it, for we read in the papers every day, how people live to a hundred years of age in strong, vigorous health. And so can you, if you do as many thousands of others are careful to do, that is to keep your body in good health, eat with moderation, work reasonably, and take a reasonable amount of sleep.

Yet even with care some people suffer from aches and pains of some kind, at one time or another. And these aches and pains often mean kidney trouble. Such symptoms as constipation, backache, pains in muscles and joints, scanty urine, and such miserable afflictions as rheumatism, headache, neuralgia, burning inflammation of the bladder, gravel and gout, are all symptoms of kidney trouble. If the kidneys are strong and healthy, these afflictions will not—cannot come to you, but if the kidneys are weak they are unable to do their proper work, and so the joints get stiff, and the back aches.

Get rid of these symptoms by getting the kidneys back to health and strength, and you will be able to enjoy life to-day as you did thirty years ago. Do De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills will help you to do this for a certainty.

Thousands of people, many of them over seventy and eighty years of age, have testified to the marvellous benefit received from De Witt's Pills, which are made expressly for the kidneys and the bladder. And so they give immediate relief to old and young alike, for they are so sure yet so gentle in action that they can be taken with advantage even by the most delicate person.

Why is it that De Witt's Pills have cured so many thousands of so-called "hopeless" cases even when everything else has failed. There is a secret and it is this. De Witt's Pills are scientifically compounded expressly to act on the kidneys and the bladder, what is more they get there.

When you take ordinary medicine, or so-called "backache" pills you often get poor results, for they never go near the kidneys.

Now when you take De Witt's Pills, you will notice, within a few hours, that the urine has turned a muddy bluish colour. You know by that positive proof that these wonderful little pills have passed through the kidneys and the bladder. You have the proof before your eyes.

From that moment the cleansing of the kidneys and bladder commences and when the kidneys are thoroughly cleansed and healed of all impurities, the pains in your back and joints will disappear just as surely as the sun will rise tomorrow morning.

What you see the urine change to a muddy, bluish colour, a feature which distinguishes De Witt's Pills from all others, you know beyond all doubt that they have put their healing touch on the right spot—the kidneys and the bladder.
De Witt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are sold by the million bottles annually in Great Britain alone.

Be Sure you get Genuine—
DeWITT'S PILLS

Sold by Chemists and Storekeepers throughout the world. De Witt's Pills are prepared in Red and Gold boxes, printed in blue, and are guaranteed to be a real cure for all kidney and bladder troubles. Remember that the secret is to get the pills to the kidneys and bladder. If you are unable to obtain them locally, send your money to The Colonial Distributors, 14, Queen's Road Central, agents for South China, who will be pleased to send the goods by return of post.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE.MR. MAX PEMBERTON'S "LIFE."

Mr. Max Pemberton's "Lord Northcliffe: A Memoir" (published in mail week, Hodder and Stoughton 7s. 6d. net) deals chiefly, as the author says in his modest preface, with "the friend and the man," and only incidentally and briefly with Viscount Northcliffe's extraordinary journalistic and political achievements.

It avoids controversies and is meant to be a study of character, and of one side of character. But, within these limitations, it is of great value and interest as giving a very attractive and truthful picture of one who was among the leading figures of the war period—of a man who was, as Mr. Pemberton says:

To me a great and beloved friend; to all, I believe, a very remarkable personality and a very great patriot—who rendered indispensable services to his country and who will never be by his countrymen forgotten.

As one of the earliest of Lord Northcliffe's friends, Mr. Pemberton writes with knowledge and authority of the beginnings of that romantic career, and tells how the lad who was to be Lord Northcliffe triumphed over every difficulty.

He enjoyed poor health and was not strong as a boy. Some of his cleverest leaders for a big morning newspaper were paid for at the rate of half a guinea a column. Elsewhere remuneration was often precarious.

Success came at last, after manifold disappointments:

As men are born with a sense of the theatre, so was he with an instinct for understanding the great reading public, which has never been surpassed, nor is ever likely to be. And to his genius were added the great business gifts which Lord Rothermere brought to the house.

Among the best chapters of the book is one by a member of Lord Northcliffe's staff, describing "na Chiel" (or "Alfred," as he was known in his earlier days) in his office.

Fundamentally he was an intensely shy man himself. The relationship which existed between himself and many men who, as he once described to me, had not had his "luck," embarrassed him. If he seemed harsh in his criticism of their work, it was because he found it hard to realize, as he grew old, that his own rise from a boyhood as free-lance reporter could not be successfully emulated by every young man in his employment.

Posterity will have to pronounce its verdict on his conflicts with the bureaucrats during the war and that verdict is not likely to be against him. But his efforts in the cause of victory really shattered him.

What is not common history is the immense strain that Lord Northcliffe suffered and the change that came over him, almost imperceptible except to his intimate friends who were with him almost every day. He had become a grave man—he who had been so often boyish in his manner.

His friends remonstrated when they knew of his intention to make his last

$1,000,000 PLEASURE PALACE.SHANGHAI'S "NEW CARLTON."

Undoubtedly the great event in the public entertainment world of Shanghai this Christmas season will be the opening of the New Carlton opposite the Race Course at San Soui Terrace says the N. C. Daily News. We mention this as a great event because it is probably the first time in the existence of the foreigner in the Far East that $1,000,000 has been expended on an establishment for catering to those who care for good music, good food, dancing, and a theatre all under one roof, amid the most luxurious surroundings money can purchase and man's eye and brain conceive. But this is just what will have happened when the New Carlton opens about the 28th or 29th of this month.

A bit of spice, romance or rather sporting element has entered into the construction of this magnificent palace. The original contract for the building provides for the completion of the main work before May 1, but Mr. Ladow, ever anxious to realize the achievement of his ambition, became impatient with the terms of the building contract. In a conversation with Mr. Edward Bell, of the second part, the statement was made that the work could not be done by Christmas of this year in any circumstances, which at once evoked the contrary assertion that it would be done. The next statement led to Mr. Ladow drawing his cheque book from his pocket and writing a cheque for $10,000. "This," says it, "cannot be finished." The wager was finally completed in such terms that the contractor was to receive the winnings, provided that the workmen with their rough work could be away from the ballroom, lobby, and dining room by December 20, 1922, thus allowing the decorating contractors to finish their installations by the first of the year.

Also the theatre by January 15, 1923. It is seldom that any-one gets the best of the Carlton, but it appears as if Mr. Ladow's cheque will be cashed by Mr. Bell before many days are out.

This stupendous project has been made possible owing to the ambitions and careful study of what the Shanghai public wants by Mr. Louis Ladow, who for 20 years has catered to the entertainment of the public.

journey round the world.

I told him very frankly that by undertaking such a journey he might be signing his death warrant. But it was ever vain to reason with him when his mind was set upon a purpose. "I must go to Australia," my dear Max," he said. "I am thinking of the future of our race."

Those who knew him were aware that he was always eager to sacrifice himself in the national interest, and a deep feeling among the public that this was the cause of the great outburst of popular sorrow which followed him to his early grave.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, DEC. 21, 1922.

COUNCIL REFORM.

The tide of constitutional reform is rising. Already it has swept away obsolete conditions in Malta, Ceylon, India and Burma. Sarghing further East it has now reached the Straits. Will it follow its present trend and flood Hongkong or is this Colony fated to remain the Cinderella? The others have already secured a big lead and unless the Commons give heed to our petition we have little hope of overtaking them. Malta and Ceylon now both have their unofficial majorities. India has been granted sweeping reforms. Burma's new franchise even includes women. The Federated Malay States has had its Select Committee to consider changes in the constitution and the publication of the report is hourly expected. And now the Straits Settlements, according to a special wire from our Singapore correspondent published in this issue, has received its first taste of constitutional reform.

Ceylon's government is vested in a Governor, assisted by an Executive Council of five members and a Legislative Council consisting of fourteen nominated official members, six nominated unofficial members and seventeen elected unofficial members. The Straits government has hitherto consisted of a Governor, an Executive Council of seven official members, and a Legislative Council of ten official and eight unofficial members. The change would add two unofficial members to the Executive Council and following change has for Hongkong. It is a Hongkong principle, does not sign of the times.

requires them to be members of the Legislative Council. An unofficial majority is still denied the Legislative Council, the Governor giving the officials a majority of one over the thirteen unofficials. Evidently feeling that this requires some explanation, as the unofficial majority is the burning ideal of constitutional reformers, the Governor admitted that the modifications did not go as far as some might have wished. However, he is palpably right when he characterises the change as an advance in constitutional development. Therefore while thanking the gods for small mercies, the more ardent reformers can take heart from the significance of the change. Having once established the principle they have striven to have recognised, they can now hope that practical experience will show the authorities above that further reforms can be safely granted.

This aspect is what specially interests Hongkong. The actual reform in itself has little value for this Colony, as conditions here are widely different. Indeed, even the Federated Malay States must work out its own constitutional destiny without help from the adjoining Straits Settlements, for each, the protectorate and the Colony, though almost homogeneous, has its own special problems. With a vast floating population passing and re-passing between the Colony and China, Hongkong's special difficulty lies in ascertaining who should possess electoral rights. However this argument does not dispose of our very strong claims for some measure of reform and now that the Straits has made this "advance in constitutional development" our petition, its technical defect remedied, should again be presented to the Commons. That is the significance the Straits change has for Hongkong. It is a Hongkong principle, does not sign of the times.

SPECIAL CABLE.

COUNCIL REFORM.

IMPORTANT STRAITS CHANGES.

(China Mail Special.)

SINGAPORE, Dec. 20.

At a special meeting of the Legislative Council, the Governor announced that it was proposed to enlarge the present Council from ten officials and eight unofficials to the Governor and thirteen officials and thirteen unofficials, adding to the unofficials two Chinese, one Malay, one Eurasian and one Indian.

The unofficials are appointed by the Governor except the Chambers of Commerce of Singapore and Penang to whom the right of election is granted.

Two unofficials are added to the executive council. They need not necessarily be members of the Legislative Council.

His Excellency explained that the modifications do not go as far as some might wish, but they represent an advance in constitutional development in the Colony.

He suggested that in view of deficiencies in government offices, the new council meet at Government House where the first meeting will be experimentally held on February 12.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The home mails which the s.s. "Sardinia" should have brought into Hongkong yesterday afternoon, did not arrive till 6.30 this morning.

The Final Dress Rehearsal of The Tempest to-morrow night will be strictly private and only those who have received special cards of invitation will be admitted.

The wedding will take place shortly of Mr. Cyril F. Mahey, of the Chartered Bank, and Miss Doris K. Stevens, who is now en route from England by the s.s. "Atsuta Maru."

"I met my brother, whom I hadn't seen for a long time. He hit me in the mouth, and that set me off," said Thomas Cunningham at Grimsby when charged with fighting.

A burglar entered the first floor of No. 1, Peking Road, Kowloon, last night. He got away with $3,500 in cash. The inmates of the flat, a contractor and his wife were not disturbed.

By a Presidential Mandate Mr. F. W. Stevens, representative of the American group of the Banking Consortium, has been decorated with the Grand Cordón of the First Class "Chiao Ho" Order.

Mr. P. J. Kearney, Canton Manager of Messrs. Andersen, Meyer and Company sails for America by the s.s. "City of Paris" on Friday. He was entertained yesterday to a farewell dinner by his Chinese friends.

The 1923 calendar issued by the Eastern and Australian Line, a copy of which we have received from the local agents, Messrs. Mackinnon, Mackenzie and Co., Ltd., shows a junk crowded sea surrounded by a photograph of one of the company's steamers.

A very handy little pocket diary bound in blue leather with gold lettering has been issued by Messrs. Donnelly and Whyte, local agents for Gordon and Co.'s famous gins. Complete with calendar, sporting information, memo space and other useful features, this diary should prove a boon to its owner.

Mr. A. W. Van Andel, head of the Holland-China Trading Co., here, who with Mrs. Van Andel returned from Shanghai yesterday, was the victim of a bad accident in the Northern Settlement a couple of weeks ago, while riding a China pony. The pony stumbled over a small concrete obstacle enclosing a turnpike and turned a somersault falling with its rider unceremoniously and badly crushing Mr. Van Andel's right arm. The bones at the elbow were badly shattered and Mr. Van Andel has had a trying time. It is still only possible to move the arm very little.

A fine of $7,500 or 12 months' jail was imposed by Mr. J. R. Wood yesterday afternoon on the Chinese from India who was on the previous day remanded for sentence on a charge of unlawful possession of 713 taels of illicit raw opium. When the case was called yesterday, Mr. G. A. S. Rave, solicitor for the defence entered a plea for leniency. The Magistrate said he was in two minds whether to send the prisoner to jail or not. He thought it was very likely that the prisoner was just passing through the Colony, and that the opium was intended for another port. Under these circumstances he imposed the penalty mentioned.

PRIZE GIVING.

KOWLOON JUNIORS' SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

SCHOOL'S GOOD START.

The first annual presentation of prizes to successful pupils of the Kowloon Junior School took place yesterday afternoon. The school was inaugurated in 1921 when overcrowding in the Kowloon British School necessitated the transfer of some of the pupils. Judging from the good results of examinations, it may be said that its first year has been one of unqualified success.

A large number of people gathered to witness the presentation, and an opportunity was provided for inspecting the work of the pupils. A display of drawings, etc., attracted a great deal of interest. Among the visitors present were the Hon. Mr. E. Irving (Director of Education), Mrs. R. M. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. F. Airey, Dr. W. B. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. Foreyth, Mr. A. B. Silva-Netto Rev. and Mrs. G. R. Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Richard, and Mr. D. W. Salter.

At intervals during the course of the afternoon the pupils entertained the guests with a programme of songs and recitations. Classes A and B sang very well the song "Baby Bear" while classes 7 and 8 gave no less pleasure with their renderings of "Mother Sea" and "Goldilocks." Nan MacArthur and John Salter acquitted themselves in the recitations of "The Brook" and "The gates of sleep." The day was brought to a fitting close by all classes joining in the song "Good night."

The Headmistress, Miss Skinner, read the school report, after which the prizes were handed to the successful pupils by Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. Dyer, in thanking the Headmistress for inviting her to give away the prizes, remarked that she was educated under the old system and she might say she had not a single pleasant memory of it. Mrs. Dyer commented favourably on the work of the pupils, particularly the handwriting which was exceptionally good.

DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION.

The Director of Education said the school had emerged most creditably from a very difficult year. He was sure all would sympathise very much with Miss Skinner during her long and serious illness and congratulate her on her complete return to health. In her absence, the School had been carried on by the other members of the staff in a way that reflected great credit upon them, the more so as one member at least was of somewhat tender years. He would like to be able to strengthen the staff he said, but as was usually the case, he would be short-handed during the year. Mrs. Dyer had given her criticisms on the works of the school, and they might accept them. The Board of Education had also made very favourable report. Mr. Irving concluded: "I ask you ladies and gentlemen to join with me in giving a very hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Dyer for her kindness in coming here, remembering always how much we have owed her husband's firm both here and at the senior school in many respects for many years." (Applause.)

SCHOOL REPORT.

The annual report stated:— "The School was opened in February, 1921. We four mistresses and sixty pupils came here as an overflow from the Kowloon British School. At first we had a somewhat chequered career, and through misfortune I myself was not at the school for some months, but the work was ably carried on during my absence. I cannot speak too highly of the manner in which Miss Jack, Mrs. Silter, Mrs. Davidson and Miss George responded to the need. They worked splendidly in the face of great difficulty. We were sorry to lose Mrs. Davidson, who, for health reasons, resigned at the close of the Easter Term. The following term Mrs. Holland came to take her place on the staff.

The School is taught in four classes, each class working in two divisions, an upper and a lower. By the third term of the year the lower division has usually merged into the upper, and most of the children prove themselves qualified for promotion. Fourteen children this year, or rather in January, are passing on from our Senior class to the Kowloon British School. The largest class throughout the year has been the Baby's. Its maximum at one time reached thirty one. This class is the most difficult and the most important in the school. It is well known to Educationalists that the older the child the easier to teach. I would, without hesitation, give my best teacher to the youngest class, and so on throughout the school.

KINDERGARTEN DEFINED. We teach, as far as possible, on Kindergarten lines. And I should like to say here, that Kindergarten is not a subject of Education. It is a system of Education. Not infrequently expressions to this effect have been made to me: "Do you teach Kindergarten?" Well, I don't mind Tommy doing a bit, it won't hurt him to play low and a sin, but I want him to get on with his lessons." Or, again: "I don't want Jaz to do any Kindergarten, who can play with those things at home; I want him to learn something at school." I know of nothing that is so little understood and therefore, so much abused, as Kindergarten. And I hope you will forgive me if I emphasize again that Kindergarten is not a subject, but a system of Education.

Most people think it means play with bricks and sticks. It may be play—at its best it will be play—the most serious, and most fruitful time of a child's life is his playtime. A child's play is earnest work to him, and wise and skilled indeed is the teacher who can lead the child to knowledge—knowledge of himself and of the external world—through this natural activity. As a great Educational reformer (one of the founders of this system) said: "The child will develop, naturally, as a flower, and the bricks, sticks, and other gifts and occupation are used simply as a means to this end, leading the child step by step from the known to the unknown, and helping him towards a natural all round development."

Neither is the Kindergarten a system that should be confined to the Baby Room, so commonly called Kindergarten; its methods should be used throughout the school. The other day I came across the following jotted on the title-page of a book: "All sided and natural development is the keynote of Froebel's system. The teacher is essentially a moral trainer as well as an instructor. Whatever is good and wise in Froebel's principles as it applies to little children, applies also to girls and boys at school. What is true for one period of life is true for all; the application may be changed."

For these remarks are somewhat of a digression and should not have found their way into this report, so I will pass on to other points of interest in connection with the school.

EDUCATION BOARD IMPRESSED. Members of the Board of Education visited the School in November and the following remarks are taken from their report:— "The Kindergarten work done in the two Infant Classes we found particularly good. There is a splendid collection of models and suitable material for use in this form of instruction, and we were very much impressed with the method adopted for the purpose of nature study. For one thing, the two Classes appear to be nicely graded in the matter of age, and we appreciate the fact that the younger children have a spare room in which they may relax. In this room are the small wall blackboards, and we had an opportunity of witnessing the children at work thereon. The drawing work of these Classes is as a consequence, excellent.

Classes 8 and 7.—The writing is good on the whole, and in the matter of reading, we were very pleased with the pronunciation. The drawing and singing by the pupils of these upper Classes leaves very little to be desired. In the matter of hygiene, we would recommend that the parents be asked to provide each child with its own cup, and also a small hand towel. We also recommend that weak tea be supplied for drinking purposes as is done in many other Government Schools.

In conclusion, we would state that we found the discipline of the School excellent, and the afternoon attendance very good."

DEVELOPING SPORT. We are still a new school, and have not yet got our sports into shape, but hope to do that next term. I believe there exists a self-formed football team.

There are at present in the school only three or four Scouts, or rather Wolf Cubs, and Brownies, (Junior Girl Guides) but this will be taken up next term. It is a movement I am very interested in, having started the first British Scouts here. There were none in the Colony until my own troop, the Peak Troop, was formed in 1914. I should like to see each child in this Junior School above the age of six, either a Wolf-Cub or a Brownie, because of the excellent ideals and the excellent training of this movement. And it is, in common with the Kindergarten system of Education, loved by children because it, also, is founded on the natural instincts of child (boy and girl) nature.

May I just say, in conclusion, that we are most grateful to the members of the Kowloon Docks for so very kindly and generously helping us with the tea and the decorations.

"DOPE" PROBLEM IN CHINA.

AMERICAN LADY'S VIEWS.

HONGKONG "A PEACEFUL CITY."

Some interesting notes upon the activities of Mrs. Angela C. Kaufman, of Los Angeles, who has devoted her life to the crusade against the drug traffic, have been forwarded to the China Mail. A year or so back Mrs. Kaufman in her endeavour to obtain a first-hand knowledge of the problem in all its aspects, made a lengthy tour of the Orient. Of her visit to China and Hongkong she writes:—

"I next sailed up the Yangtze River to Peking and there in its full blast, without further explanation, was shown what 'dope' had done for this mighty country. It was a forecast of what I could see for America unless we learned the lesson China failed to master 400 years ago. Everywhere there was the filth and the mental unbalance of a race once potent. No pen nor picture can show what I saw in semi-human form, and yet the spark of life hovered, flickering feebly in those bodies."

"After five months I sailed for Hongkong, a peaceful city controlled by the British. But there again were the marks of the great destroyer 'dope' the halter around the world's universal gibbet. Crossing the river into Canton, I did my bit in a war waged by beings who had no mind as to their doings, because the brain was dead—and so the slaughter unlimited."

"Out of these heinous sights there arose one outstanding fact so impressive that it will live forever in my mind. It was the Great Wall of China, of solid granite, hewed by the sinews of man's brawny arm of great strength when China was in her glorious state 4000 years ago. Dispositions and labour questions arose first among themselves. A word that was easily found in the open field was a splendid 'chewing-bit' (or as we call it chewing gum). It appeased the appetite, and, jokingly, suggestions were made to applying the burning torch to it. It gave forth a pleasing perfume and the name was opium. Herbsmen came to investigate. Powders were made, then given as medicine, bringing on sleep—robbing man of peaceful existence, taking from him his country and his name."

FOR THE BLIND.

YESTERDAY'S SALE OF WORK.

A sale of work in aid of the blind girls' institution at Kowloon City, was successfully held at the Helena May Institute yesterday afternoon. The institution has been run by the Church Missionary Society since the war, and with a view to making it as far as possible, self-supporting, the girls have been taught to make useful articles of wearing apparel. During the past year they have also been taught the craft of brush-making, which has considerably increased the girls' usefulness, making them an asset rather than a burden to the Colony. The articles offered for sale yesterday represented a year's labour, and included a variety of useful things, prettily designed and executed. Many well-made brushes were also to be found on the stalls and sold readily.

Although the sale goes some way towards supporting the institution, more money is needed to permit it to carry on in the coming year, and any contributions will be gratefully received by Miss Tron, who is in charge.

RUGBY.

Class C: (Division II): 1st, Dorothy Johnston; 2nd, Elmer Hammond.

CANTON'S PAPER CURRENCY.

BANK NOTE DRAWING.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, December 20. Yesterday at the Merchant's Volunteer Crops parade ground, the first drawing of Provincial Bank notes deposited with the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation took place. Representatives from the Civil Governor's, Finance Commissioner's and Mayoral Yamen were present to carry out the draw and members of the Canton Chamber of Commerce acted as scrutineers. It was announced that during the period September 15 to December 18, notes to the amount of $4,788,300 had been deposited with the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank and $500,000 would be redeemed at this drawing. The details of the procedure were duly put and the draw went through without a hitch. Numbers to be redeemed will be issued in due course.

A SPECIAL CONFERENCE.

For three hours yesterday a number of influential citizens discussed means to relieve the financial stringency and bring about appreciation in the value of the notes. They assembled in the Civil Governor's yamen at the express invitation of the Finance Commissioner who personally presided. No practicable suggestion was mooted as it was pointed out that almost every known scheme had been explored without success. The notes are now worth about 37 per cent in ratio to silver subsidiary coin.

NEW MAYOR'S SCHEME.

The new Mayor, Kum Chong, has given out that he is in favour of accepting paper currency in payment to his department but owing to its low intrinsic value, he suggests doubling all payments to make up for the loss sustained. This will mean that all payments into the municipal coffers, if made in notes, will have to be twice the amount actually due. It remains to be seen how the merchants and general public will receive the proposal.

DISHONEST MES; COOLIE.

OFFICER'S CLOTHING STOLEN.

A coolie formerly employed at the R. A. Mess, Granville Road, Kowloon, was charged before Mr. J. R. Wood this morning with the larceny of a suit of pyjamas and a pair of flannel trousers, the property of Capt. J. M. Morphy, and a felt hat and a pair of cuff links, the property of Capt. O. S. Cumming.

Capt. Cumming said that the first offence was committed on the third Sunday in November. He (witness) had been to Lynton, and when he came back, he placed his felt hat on the hat stand. When he came downstairs after supper, the hat was gone. He did not report the loss to the police, because he thought possibly some other officer had taken the hat by mistake.

The second offence, continued the witness, occurred on December 18. He missed his cuff links and Capt. Morphy lost some clothing. A report was made to the police.

Sub-Inspector Shannon said that a few days later defendant was arrested in a Yamen brothel wearing Capt. Morphy's flannels.

Defendant was sentenced to six weeks' jail on each charge, the sentences to run consecutively.

SETTLED AT LAST.

BAKERS' STRIKE ENDS.

A settlement of the question involved in this matter was reached yesterday afternoon on the following terms:—

For wages: An increase of From $2 to $5 a month. 45%
" $6 " 10 " 35%
" $11 " 20 " 25%
" $21 " 30 " 15%
" $31 & over " 10%
The minimum wages for small boys shall be $2 a month.
These increases shall be based on the wages in force on the 20th day of Chinese moon this year.
For the rest, the old customs of the several shops shall continue.
The agreement was signed by Tam Wun Ia and Yeung Tiao, "full power representatives of Bakers," and Masters of 13 Chinese owned bakeries. The men start work to-morrow morning.

CANTON BOMB OUTRAGE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, December 20. Liang Kai-shan has been detained by the authorities being suspected of implication in the bomb outrage outside the Mayoral office. He was arrested in a sump near the wharf outside the Electric Co.'s works.

AN XMAS WINDOW.

MESSRS. MOUTRIE'S ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY.

The two large shop windows of Messrs. Moutrie and Co., in Chater Road, are now certainly worth looking into. There the art of clever window dressing expresses the oncoming of Christmas in an unmistakable style. To dress a window with originality is no easy task, but this Messrs. Moutrie have most successfully achieved.

The left hand window indicates Christmas Eve, and Father Christmas is shown adding a portable Victrola Gramophone to the Yuletide presents of a little girl who is lying fast asleep in her warm cot. In this happy fashion are the public reminded that music hath charms to soothe the infant's breast.

The other window is equally in creating if only for its graceful simplicity. Here a model of a beautifully dressed lady is appearing to derive evident joy from the musical tones of a Moutrie piano, which also goes to illustrate that a piano is a serviceable present for Christmas.

No house is complete without either a gramophone or a piano, musical instruments that both bring unbounded delight to a family, a party or for that matter to an audience of one. The Moutrie piano, for instance, not only serves its purpose for entertainment, but is distinctly elegant as a piece of drawing room furniture while the Victrola can always be made useful to decorate a suitable niche in some chosen corner of the house.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

One Chinese case of enteric fever was notified yesterday.

The "Titanic" jazz quartet will play at the Palace Hotel Kowloon next Saturday night when there will be dancing at 9 p.m. During the evening Mr. Don G. Merle, the well known musician, will entertain the company.

The Imports and Exports Department will be open for all purposes till noon on Monday, December 25 and January 1, 1923; and for payment of liquor duties only on Tuesday, December 26. Licensed warehouses will be entirely closed on all those dates.

All departments of Messrs. A. S. Watson and Co., Ltd., will remain open until 6 p.m. on Saturday, December 23. On Xmas Day and on Boxing Day all departments will be closed except the Hongkong Dispensary dispensing department which will be open for dispensing prescriptions from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 7.30 p.m., on each day.

Some enterprising Chinese in Hongkong, headed by Lai Man Wai, Lok Wing Chong, Luk Shing Pak, Tam Pak Lieh, and others, have completed plans for the promotion of a film manufacturing company to stage Chinese plays and take educational and other films for exhibition, according to the Eastern Times. The company will have a capital of $800,000 divided into shares of five dollars each.

A REALLY GREAT PICTURE... A FEATURE THAT WILL BE THE TALK OF THE TOWN.

HOUSE PETERS IN "THE STORM" A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

STARRING

HOUSE PETERS

VIRGINIA VALLI, MATT MOORE

and an all star cast of the most popular actors

Here is a picture for! You have never seen such a story as this adaptation. It towers over anything of its kind; it is the humanity, the reality, the crashing smashing drama of eternal romance, vivified to the highest degree.

There are three tense pitches of climax which gives this picture its rugged strength.....the ultimate climax reveals a huge colorful forest fire, the like of which has never been seen before.

WHAT MAKES THIS PICTURE GREAT?

It is excellently directed—the story is simplicity itself—the backgrounds are vital and vivid, and finally the acting is excellent.

Admission:—

Matinee 4.45 p.m. $1.50 & 80 cents

Night Show 9.15 p.m. $1.50 & 1.00

KWANGTUNG'S WARS.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT.

No news has come in from the Fukien front for some time. The general impression is that a condition of stalemate prevails, both sides being content to mark time providing the other makes no attempt to encroach.
 Apparently, both the Kwangtung troops and the pro-Sun army are bidding their time, hoping for some favourable development in the political situation.

Wun Key, General Chen's
 Director of operations, reports that, he has established permanent headquarters at Ding chow. In addition to the usual fighting units, he has drafted one company of bodyguards, one battalion of medical corps and one company of machine-guns, all to be at headquarters. A temporary hospital and clearing station for casualties is also to be erected at Ding Chow. Altogether he has seven battalions of infantry and two companies of artillery in the neighbourhood.

Cantonese troops at Wuchow are still being moved into Kwangsi but no fighting on any pronounced scale has yet broken out. Until the dispositions of some of the leading rival factions are ascertained, it is difficult to predict which side will ultimately gain the upper hand. The Kwangtung commander, Hung Leuk, is reported to be recruiting machine-gun platoons to be attached to his brigades of infantry as this class of weapon is essential for a campaign in Kwangsi.

Troops are still being moved from one part of the province to another.
 On Tuesday, the Transport Bureau requisitioned two more junk ferries with their launches, hitherto playing between Canton and Lung Tam-Hung Tam. Some of the transports previously com-mandered have not yet been released and, at present, there is an acute shortage.

For publishing inaccurate figures regarding the number of Kwangtung soldiers at Wuchow and contravening the censor's orders, the Commander-in-Chief has ordered the Sun Chung Po, at Canton, to suspend publication for three days.

 ness on Monday and Tuesday, December 25 and 26.

A large junk proceeding from Canton to Wuchow with about 2,000 gallons of kerosene on board caught fire at the Shih Hing Gorge and was towed to the water's edge when she sank.
 The crew escaped by jumping into the river, where they were rescued by small craft in the neighbourhood.

HOW TO KEEP WELL IN WINTER.

Do not let your blood get thin this winter. For people to have a tendency to wind, nervousness or bloodless-ness, winter is a trying season.

As soon as you notice the first feeling of lack of appetite and shortness of breath that are warning symptoms of thin blood take a short treatment with Dr.
 Williams' Pink Pills. Do not wait until the color has entirely left your cheeks until your lips are white, your mind dull and your eyes like mother of pearl. It is so much easier to correct thinness of the blood in the earlier stages than later.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. In this way the general health is improved, the appetite increases, the digestion is strengthened, and new ambition and energy are developed. Work becomes easier because it does not cause exhaustion.

Keep your system at its highest efficiency with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the great blood-builder and nerve tonic.
 Your own druggist can supply you, or you can obtain the Pills direct from the
 Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 CROSBY ROAD, SHANGHAI, one bottle for $1.00, six for $5.00. Post-free. An instructive booklet, "Blood and Health," will be sent to you free in response to a postal request directed to the above address.
